Alachua County Fair—next in interest to our own—Nov. 16-19.

Florida State Fair—biggest one yet—in Jacksonville, Nov. 18-27.

Marion County Fair, Nov. 23-27.
Let's make it the pride of our hearts.

Our copy of the fair edition of the Gainesville Sun was so hefty that it made our exchange table grunt. Fairly well filled, made up and printed, too.

After this, Ocala elections will be in the nature of social affairs.

Democratic candidate for sheriff in Pinellas won. We hoped he would.

As secretary of state, Mr. Colby doesn't even measure up to Bryan.

Golly! St. Petersburg went for Harding. Sunshine City has located itself under a shadow.

It is believed that Bergdoll is in Germany, and that is worse than being in Fort Leavenworth federal prison.

Now, let's return to normalcy. But normalcy means hard work, and Americans of all classes strenuously strive to avoid that.

Only a week from today to Armistice day and the American Legion's masquerade ball in the armory. It's going to be a great event.

The present Ku-Klux Klan is a fake, and likely to make the South ten times as much trouble as it is worth. In fact, it's no worth at all.

It will be a great deal better for the United States to fight Japan on account of California than for the United States to say that California shall be handed over to Japan.

Eamon de Valera, after surrounding a good meal, placed a toothpick in his face and went to make a sobstister address on the death of McSweeney.
Somebody should have hit him in the mouth with a loaf of stale bread.

"What is the country coming to?" snarls an alarmist. Well, for one thing, it is coming to its senses.—Palaska News, Nov. 2.

It was rank treason to the democratic party to make such a remark as that on election day.

The Star is informed that there were four votes for the negro candidate, Hampton, in Romeo precinct, alto there is only one negro voter in said precinct. Romeo is the precinct of Uncle Billy Folks, who we fear is not herding his flock aright.

That boy on the Times-Union, who put into the "Summary of the Day's News" of that paper for Wednesday, the line "Ocala, Orange County, Scene of Race Riot," we hope the boss editor will read him the riot act, for Ocala isn't in Orange county and hasn't had any riot. At the very least, he should be spanked on the wrist.

Not that we can't think up enough to fill this column without it, but just to keep any of the other paragraph-ers from beating us to it, we hasten to remark that W. V. Knott ran better than he did four years ago.—St.
Angustine Record.

Florida people have better sense than they had four years ago.

Before the suffragets berate Georgia for not letting women vote Tuesday, and ask for the wrath of the other states on that commonwealth, they should remember that Georgia has a law which says that no person shall vote unless registered six months previous to an election, and the Georgians had no time to repeal the law in order to accommodate the suffs.

The Italians have given Cocchi, the murderer of the New York girl, Ruth Krugger, a sentence of twenty-seven years—practically a life term. The death penalty is not inflicted in Italy, except on spies, traitors, etc., in time of war, so Italian justice was visited in full on an Italian for the murder of an American girl in America. We can't help wondering if American justice would do as much for Italy. Certainly not, if the defendant was rich.

Beware of the "Adventourist"

The secretary of the Board of Trade advises the merchants and business men to beware of the "Adventourist," that individual who pays for a winter's stay in Florida by selling fake advertising. The state is full of these persons. They offer a form of advertising that is clever frequently but ineffective, and take out of the community and state money that should be spent on a more legitimate basis.

sition in Jacksonville, is spending

Miami.

Geiger of Emathla, were Sunday

WEIRSDALE

day.

ing last Friday afternoon at the

Prof. S. P. Barnett and Miss Caroline Pasteur, had a delightful program prepared and the children did unusually well. One very interesting number was a song, "Lazy John," in pantomime and another was a lively debate as to whether or not a woman should be president. I think the boys took a great deal of pleasure in presented the negative side, and the girls did the best they could with the affirmative but, although the boys made it very clear that we women can never depend on any of them for help in realizing the smallest political ambition, should the occasion arise in future years, yet they made it equally apparent that a woman can be gen-tinely useful as a cook. This organization was started through the united efforts of the good women of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and our enterprising and progressive teachers here. Every one interested in the school and education in general is urged to join. Many things are hoped to be accomplished for our school here.

The first undertaking for the school by the association was a Hallow'en party last Saturday night. The children were given masks and horns and thoroughly enjoyed the masquerade march, the fortune telling, bobbing for apples, and ghost stories, and even the doughnuts and cookies had a better flavor for having been passed by an old witch. The grown folks themselves agree that it is nicer to be entertained by mysterious ghosts at the schoolhouse than by nightly visits on Hallow'en, announced by tick-tacks and the disappearance of gates and chairs spirited to the top of stove chimneys such as we've read of in former years.

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Straub and son, Harrison, arrived from Lehigh, Pa., last Thursday night for another winter in sunny Florida. Every one is glad to welcome them back again.

Mr. M. S. Carnahan and Miss Ethel Carnahan came last Thursday to their winter home here. They had a delightful auto trip down from Pleasantville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Snitzler arrived from their home at Asbury Park last Thursday to spend another winter with us.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kelsey and Mother Kelsey have moved back to their home at Stanton from Leesburg, where they have been spending the summer.

The many warm friends of Mr. J.
Connell of Toronto, Canada, will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred last Wednesday, Oct. 28rd, in Toronto. Mr. Connell had been spending his winters here for the past nine years and had become a general favorite with all. He was a witty old Scotch-Canadian and one of the most beloved old gentlemen of our community. The absence of his kindly face from among us will be sadly grieved by a host of friends.
